

ALL THE WAY

Composition / Lyrics: Falco Luneau/Tony Cornelissen

I'm just kinda overwhelmed
I am gonna break the spell
I can feel your intensity
You bring out the best in me

I am gonna crash at your place
I just wanna kiss your face
I wanna go where ever you will go o
This my best scenario o
Not my worst-case scenario o

Chorus Oh no, I know you said
Hello I just need a lover tonight
Let's go, let's go all the way
Hang on I am gonna get you tonight
I'll make you feel all right
Let's go, let's go all the way

You said I know your friend Rochelle
But it doesn't ring a bell
No defenses, no excuses
No matter how or what the truth is

We crash on your bed
Tell me there are no regrets
I'm gonna go wherever you want me to go o
This your best scenario o
Not your worst-case scenario o

Chorus
